- That on March 6th, 2014 a meeting of the Central Committee of Parliament was held with as agenda point: "The decision of Government to purchase the Emilio Wilson Estate";
- That the honourable Minister of VROMI, Mr. Maurice Lake was present during the meeting to answer to question from Members of Parliament;

- That the minister stated emphatically to Parliament that the letter he was reading had never been booked in;
- That the letter in question had, however, indeed been booked in;
- That Minister Maurice Lake further told Parliament that he would provide a copy of the letter in question as he wanted to be transparent and had nothing to hide;
- That only today, April 24th, 2014, a copy of the letter in question was provided to Parliament;
- That in a letter to Parliament Minister Maurice Lake states that court cases had been started by Millenium and Corsea against the Government of Sint Maarten, which is also not true;
