In re: Urgent request for answers and information regarding Land Fill

Excellency:

By these means I remind you of your promise to provide the requested written answers to questions posed to you during your last session in Parliament with respect to the abovementioned topic.

This meeting was held on September 18th, and since that date we have not received any word from you. You are therefore hereby urgently requested to comply with your constitutional duties and provide Parliament with the requested information without further delay!

Sincerely,

MP Maurice Lake
