The honorable Silveria Jacobs,

Philipsburg, May 13, 2021

Honorable Prime Minister Jacobs,

With much consternation have I been following recent events with regard to the Princess Juliana International Airport. The latest act by your government, allegedly to suspend the Managing Director(MD) of the Holding, raises more questions than it provides answers.

Please respond to the following questions with the utmost urgency:

Was the MD of the Airport Holding Board, Mr. Doncher suspended?

If so, on what grounds and under what conditions? Is the suspension with pay?

When were you and/or other ministers made aware of the letter dated December 3, 2020 from PJIAH, demanding that the CEO of PJIA tenders his resignation?

Were you or any other minister made aware of the actions in aforementioned letter, before the letter was sent?

What actions did you and/or any other minister undertake and when following the letter of December 3rd to Brian Mingo?

When were you and/or other ministers made aware of the letter dated April 7, 2021 from PJIAH, firing Brian Mingo?

Were you or any other minister made aware of the actions in aforementioned letter, before the letter was sent?

What actions did you and/or any other minister undertake and when following the letter of April 7th to Brian Mingo?

On whose authority did Mr. Doncher and the PJIAH SBOD act in the case of the dismissal of Mr. Mingo?

Did PJIAH SBOD provide you with accurate information, which you in turn shared with parliament, suggesting that parties had solved their differences after the December 3rd letter? (See your response to questions posed by the undersigned).

Please provide any and all COM decisions regarding Brian Mingo's dismissal and Dexter Doncher's suspension.

Respectfully submitted,

S. A. Wescot-Williams, MP (UD)
